Practice Test

Prompt Writing (video style transfer)

1. Always describe the SOUND and the DIALOGUE (only in case of zero sound vids)

Why: Almost everyone skipped these. The SOP asks for them every single time.

…the pony dances in the center on a green background.	…the pony dances in the center on a green background. No music, only soft ambient sound. No spoken dialogue; any words appear as text on screen.

2. Write a transformation, not a persona

Why: We need "keep this → change that" — not "you are the best animator who worked with Disney/Marvel." That intro adds nothing.

You are the world's best 2D animator who has worked with Disney, Marvel, and DC. Make a video where…	Keep the hand-drawn 2D style and rough outlines. Replace the grey blob with a small grey pony with a yellow mane. Change the background to solid green.

3. State the length and loop

Why: Length / loop is a required detail and was missing in a third of prompts.

(no mention of how long the clip is)	The clip is about 1 second long and loops twice.

Labelling (interactive elements)

4. Say the ACTION, not how it looks

Why: The SOP wants what happens when you click — not a description of the icon.

This is a search icon at the top right.	Opens the search bar to look for products.

5. Name the real element

Why: Wrong labels are the costliest mistake — they spoil the data and fail the client check.

1. Navigates to a section. (vague / guessed)	1. Opens the Apple homepage. (name the element, then the action.)

6. Fill every box — never leave it blank

Why: An empty or one-line answer is an automatic fail at the qualification gate.
